

Best Practices 2017 18

Best Practice-I Voluntary Blood Donation Campaign

Goal: To create a voluntary Blood Donors group of students, staff, and villagers and awareness of Blood donation.

The Context: The location of the college, the modern medical scenario, and the scarcity of blood in the domain enforced us to create blood donor's groups. Many peoples from this region are not aware even of their own blood group and have misconceptions about blood donation. Evidence of Success: NSS unit of the college organized awareness camps regularly, and provide facilities to test blood groups. In the year 2017-18, total 61 units of blood were collected from 4 camps. Out of this one camp was organized in the adopted village Devmogra Punarvasan 30 units of blood collected from this camp. Problems encountered and resources required: No problems were experienced by the college while organizing Blood donation Camps. Funds required for miscellaneous requirements like healthy snacks, and fruits for donors are managed by the college.

Best Practice-II

Voter Awareness Campaign

Objectives:

- To sensitize voters, citizens, and students about the importance of votes for strengthening democracy and good governance.
- To improve electoral transparency and accountability.
- To reiterate the importance of every vote through awareness camp.
- To improve the participation of voters and citizens in a voting system.

Context: The power of vote for every eligible citizen as well as voter turnout is very important in a democracy, as each and every vote counts the voter turnout must be increased for better government. Therefore, to motivate and increase the participation of voters in the electoral process NSS unit of Shrikrishna Mahavidyalaya organized voters awareness camps, rallies, and new voter enrolment camps regularly.

The Practice: The college students and NSS unit of Shrikrishna Mahavidyalaya, Gunjoti stepped forward to motivate and aware voters of the importance of voting and the right to vote under the guidance of the principal. To appeal to voters of the village and to increase the voting percentage in the Zilla Parishad and Panchayat Samiti election voter awareness campaign was organized by the college. The students actively participated in the campaign. A voter awareness rally was organized by the college. “Voter awareness Chariot” ornamented with banners, posters, and slogans spread the good word about voting. “Voter awareness Chariot” was the attraction of the rally. The first-time voters were also part of the rally. The college organized a voter enrolment campaign in collaboration with Tahsil Office. College teachers made an appeal to enrol the name in the voters list to the village people. NSS volunteers of the college also participated in the voter awareness rally organized by the Tahasil office, Akkalkuwa. A voters awareness rally was organized by NSS unit of the college also. Rally was inaugurated by The Principal of college. Program officers of NSS unit, and students were the part of rally. Evidence of Success: The process of awareness helped to strengthen local governance. Voters get messages about their roles and responsibilities as a voter. Eligible and new voters enrolled their names in the voter list. Problems encountered and resources required: To organize such Campaigns need more support from local governance.
